This is a hidden song. It is sang by Rannveig Sif Sigurdardottir from Iceland. At the bottom of this page you'll find a translation made by Baldur Gislason. Thanks!

(Icelandic verision:)

Sofu unga stin mn
ti regni grtur.
Mamma geymir gullin n
gamlan legg og vluskrn.
Vi skulum ekki vaka um dimmar ntur.

a er margt sem myrkri veit
minn er hugur rotinn.
oft g svartan sandinn leit
svi og grnan engireit.
jklinum hlja dauar djpar sprungur.

Sofu lengi sofurtt
seint mun best a vakna.
Mum kenna mun r fljtt
mean hallar degi skjtt.
Mennirnir elska, missa, grta og sakna.

(English verision:)

Sleep my young love
outside the rain is crying.
Momma stores your gold
an old leg and a stone case
We should not stay awake in dark nights.

It's a lot the darkness knows
my mind is empty
Often into the black sand I looked
svi and green grass square
In the glacier sound some dead and deep cracks,

Sleep for long and quietly

late is best to wake up Mum I will teach you promptly
as the day is passing quick Humen love, loose, cry and miss.
