Copyright 2004 Lyrics and Music by Lucan Wolf

Crimson

Candles flicker , Shadows casting
Flesh and blood aflame
Thirst is rising everlasting
A beast too wild to tame

And the night is laced with crimson
Your love is traced in crimson

Lovers embrace , Consumating
Lips caressing skin
Sinking deeper penetrating
To taste the life within

And the night is laced with crimson
Your love is traced in crimson

Surround me , You are free
In darkness fall away
No regret , Just forget
Shun the light of day
