Sanguinaria

Guardians of the night elite and strong
Among the herd of humanity
Take that which you desire , Sanguinaria !

Enter the night , Sundown is your invitation
You feel the thirst driving you insane
Ready to prowl , Searching for that stimulation
A taste for blood takes away the pain

Hear the drumbeat like a heartbeat
Move into the crowd
Someone's dancing with the dead
The music is so loud
Hear the heartbeat like a drumbeat
Lost outside the crowd
Take what you desire , Anything's allowed

Sanguinaria , Sanguinaria enter the night
Anything's allowed

You know all their secrets , In drops of life you see
Capture scarlet images , Set the madness free

Craving your touch , Yielding to your domination
They lose their will as they lose their mind
Giving control needing wicked penetration
Sweet submission of another kind

Sanguinaria , Sanguinaria
No wrong or right anything's allowed
