THE VAMPIRE

I hear you calling
From your fever dreams
I hear your heart beat
As the silence screams
You are waiting for your fall from grace
Let me take you
In my Dark Embrace

I walk between darkness and light
Your lover in the veil of night
The secret pleasure you desire
I'm the one that you need
The Vampire

Moving through shadows
In the crimson flood
I taste temptation
Flowing in your blood
Giving welcome to forbidden things
I enfold you
In black leather wings

I walk between darkness and light
Your lover in the veil of night
The secret pleasure you desire
I'm the one that you need
The Vampire

Follow me
I'll show you things you've never seen before
Come with me now
You are mine forevermore...
