I see your eyes clear in my head the eyes of the girl I barely met Crystal blue, dream come true in slow motion you just walk on by Remembering now, remember how you looked at me across the room that night were strangers still despite my will you don't need her name with a smile so sweet your eyes cut deeper into me crystal blue dream come true
hell I wont be gone to long well im never coming back always hated saying so long well it always comes to that its just one smile, its just one smile its all for you, its all for you I see you eyes clear in my head

crystal blue saw right through in slow motion you just walked on by
