I see your face
When I close my eyes
I hear your name
When the wind's just right

The setting sun
Is gone once more
Each night is worse
Than the night before

Now I can't stand to leave you
I can't take the weight of this world
On my own
And I don't know what I'll do
I don't think I can make it
All alone

They say all
Can heal with time
That don't mean much
To me tonight

Like city streets
Your eyes shine
I'm lost out here
With the losing kind

Now I can't stand to leave you
I can't take the weight of this world
On my own
And I don't know what I'll do
I don't think I can make it
All alone

Yes I've felt this kind of pain
A hole straight through my chest
Yes I've felt this kind of pain
Seems now it's all that's left
It's always there, never far away
Seems now it's all that's left

Every song I hear

Your voice sings
The words are clear
Come back to me

Come back to me
My only one
And hold me close
When your work is done

Now I can't stand to leave you
I can't take the weight of this world
On my own
And I don't know what I'll do
I don't think I can make it
All alone

Now I can't stand to leave you
I can't take the weight of this world
On my own
And I don't know what I'll do
All alone
