so young and so hungry
so unqualified
don't want the jobs anyways
no settled life

to get outta here
two options one chance
you joined the army
i started a band

we'll meet at the bar
we'll buy us a round
we'll toast that we're back home we'll toast this damn town annie's still working

behind the bar
you can buy her a drink
i'll sleep in the car
let's go

it's on the way back home we'll be there soon

one of two choices
i guess i've made mine
i drink in a different town nearly every night

and now you don't drink for months at a time
i owe you a couple rounds we're back home tonight

we'll drink to old times
and those left behind

and i'll sleep in the car
let's go

it's on the way back home tonight
