I see a fire in your eyes, exciting me, inviting me.
I feel the power of your spell, moving me, consumming me.

I'll go with you to the edge of the stars,
with every single beat of my heart.

-Chorus-

I want you, I need you
Deep in the nigh (quiero amor).
I'm craving the feeling of holding you tight.
Six billion people on the Planet is true, (quiero amor)
But I just want love... From You!

I've search the world to find the way,
you feel the need inside of me.
I'll never once gave all the hope,
that love exists just like this.

And now that I'm this close to your legs,
I want to lose myself in you kiss.

Chorus (3x)
