"She Wakes When She Dreams"

she's crying herself to sleep every night til her eyes shut and find better times
sleeps when she wakes

now sleep my sweet girl
and dream of better days

nothing it seems went according to plan who are we kidding, there never was a plan we followed our instincts in the worst kind of ways

she sits and the bar, and smiles and she drinks she talks the whole night never says what she means she'll fight when she's drunk we stay outta the way

and dream of better drays she wears a sorrow her beauty can't hide i pray she sheds it and sleeps the whole night

she wakes when she dreams
she sleeps when she wakes
