"In Battle"

As I gaze into the sky
I can see the ravens fly
And as I hear the northern call
In battle is where I will fall
When axes clash and blood is shed
My path is paved by the dead
In battle I will reign supreme
On victory I am so keen

As I gaze into the sky
I can see the ravens fly
And as I hear the northern call
In battle is where I will fall

In battle we will stand or fall
Waiting for the northern call
To Asgard we're gonna fly
Ravenlike we'll soar to the sky

In battle
I will reign supreme
In battle
We will stand or fall
In battle

In battle we will stand or fall
Waiting for the northern call
To Asgard we're gonna fly
Ravenlike we'll soar to the sky
