

Lucid Fly "Alohum"

Visit "Alohum" on MotoLyrics.com

The sound of a low hum
Loomed overhead
Led me willingly
Off the beaten path
In a direction
That I've never been to before
A reconnection
That I needed to explore

A chance to remember you

Deepening my curiosity
The sound of your hum
Led me willingly
To an absent past

A chance to remember you
No more goodbyes
No matter how things change
No more goodbyes
No more goodbyes

A reflection of who I was
No matter how things change
No more good byes
A river cast upon my eyes
A reflection of who I was
No matter how things change

A chance to remember you
To remember you
once more
