Begotten christian bastards their death sentence written Evil stares thru my eyes all that's evil survives Taken their lives jesus christ been sodomized Begging for mercy no reprieve the midnight hour on hollow's eve
I'm laughing they cry watching them die witness god's demise

God's word are lies, filled with defeat, making you kill For religious belief's

Enter my life dark one, the anti-christ satan's son Piss on the cross darkness, my soul lost in the abyss

Preach the gospel sunday, culling us with a prostitute monday
Power over the weak to make pray Went to church cause they say Weakling fool's i've got the new's
It's too late he'll never rise again

Weakling minds they are blind, weakling minds destined to die
Weakling minds no reprieve, weakling minds wipe out their disease
Christian mind's will never rise
