Restless is a heart that wanders
Before the moment you are passing through
Like a sunlight reappearing
As the clouds withdrew
Was it you who left me wondering
What the world outside my window leads
It's the strangest kind of feeling
Oh so bittersweet

(Chorus)

You will go where you need to
I hope you will find peace
And anytime you start to believe
That everyone in life just leaves your side
Please remember me

Anyone can see the sorrow
But there's a tenderness behind your scars
And I was there when you were laughing
I know who you really are

(Chorus)

You will go where you need to
I hope you will find peace
And anytime you start to believe
That everyone in life just leaves your side
Please remember me

(Repeat last chorus)
