The Right Kind
I tried everything
And gave you all I had
But when the cup is empty
That's where love and truth meet
So we fall apart
Just like a house of cards
Can anyone live up to
What can satisfy you?

Who could know you like I do
After all that we've been through
I hope she's out there looking for you
Cause I won't be standing by
When you need me there this time
To tell you everything's alright
Oh love is hard to find
So I hope you get the right kind

Perfect is a miss
That person don't exist
So can you start believing
Anything worth keeping
Is gonna be worth the fight

Who could know you like I do
After all that we've been through
I hope she's out there looking for you
Cause I won't be standing by
When you need me there this time
To tell you everything's alright
Oh love is hard to find
So I hope you get the right kind

There's an empty space in your heart
That needs to give to receive

Who could know you like I do
After all that we've been through
I hope she's out there looking for you
Cause I won't be standing by

When you need me there this time
To tell you everything's alright
Oh love is hard to find
Love is hard to find
Oh love is hard to find
So I hope you get the right kind
