Take this broken heart
I don't need it anymore I'm letting this new one stop getting beating like before this open wound needs somebody new to stitch it up i lost one fight with love but I'm not giving up, no.

I'll let go for something better in my life i'll walk through that kind of weather if there's sun on the other side and I know all the pain the mess we made is finally over and it's time to let go, its time to let go take this broken record don't wanna hear it anymore cause it won't pull me back together gonna close this book, gonna shut this door my restless mind is aching to find some release I won't look back gonna keep my past in front of me, no

I will let go for something better in my life I will walk through that kind of weather if there's sun on
the other side
and I know all the pain, the mess we made is finally over
and it's time to let go, it's time to let go

I'm ready waiting, willing and able I've had the time to heal I wanted to but not now I want to feel

And i'll let go for something better in my life
I will walk through that kind of weather if there's sun on
the other side
and I know all the pain the mess we made is finally over and it's time to let go it's time to let go.
