I've been wondering around thinking what I should do
And everytime that I chased, was everytime that I'd lose

Now I know we've been right her before
But that shouldn't count anymore
What we believe we should be, we should be.

I've been feeling so down, feeling so used
Always I stand inline, in everything that I do.
Now I know that the answer is life,
It's taken me this long to realise
You gave me love just in time.

(chorus)

And I feel it in my heart baby, I can feel it in my soul
tonight.
Undo this from the start, save me cause I never wanna
fall behind
And I feel it in my heart baby, I can feel it in my soul
tonight.
Oh yeah.

I find it hard to believe, to believe in myself
And every move that I make belongs to somebody else
I'm counting the days and the nights
It's taken me this long to realise
You gave me love just in time.

(chorus)

And I feel it in my heart baby, I can feel it in my soul
tonight.
Undo this from the start, save me cause I never wanna
fall behind
I feel it in my heart baby, I can feel it in my soul tonight.
Undo this from the start, save me cause I never wanna
fall behind

(bridge)

For the times when I feel so uninspired
Life is better with you right by my side

Let go of the heartache I have felt before over you Love has opened up the door, and I'm walking through

(chorus)

I feel it in my heart baby, I feel it in my soul tonight.
Undo this from the start, save me, I don't wanna fall.
Oh, oh, I feel it in my heart baby,
Undo this from the start, save me, no, no.
(repeat to fade)
