Christian Wunderlich

I know what you're thinking
When I'm saying I'll stay for eternity
You want me to leave you, but I need you, can't you see the misery?
You know it's a simple thing to send my heart away baby
I should stay 'cos I am the best you have and I will prove it to you now
That's why I'm telling you

Family adventures they always make me realize my family affairs
Can't be that wrong and you can always count on me

There is no one to deny it and I swear I'm filled with love and honesty
When I say that I will be there for my family.

We will stick together now and forever
I guess it's the only chance two people can do it.
Let's go through it 'cos we are much more than friends
You know it's a simple thing to make me oh so sad
baby
You'll regret it 'cos I am the best you have
And I will prove it to you now
That's why I'm telling you ...
