It's easy for those
Who're gone
But hard to carry on
The good and bad
Belong to us
Like a prayer to a pries
So I wonder
Who will care for me
When my heart's crying a pain
And the only thing
That I can do
Is wait, can I wait?

Time will tell
What's on my mind
Tears will flow
Until my eyes go blind

Oh, I sing until I cry, 'cause
That's my way to say goodbye

We built castles in the air
And we watched
The world out there
And now there's nothing
I can do
But wait, I'll wait for you

Time will tell
What's on my mind
Tears will flow
Until my eyes go blind
Oh, I sing until I cry, 'cause
That's my way to say goodbye
