"Grenades and gasoline"

Pull the pin and swallow A grenade chased with gasoline if your tears framed your face would you smile just for me? because all i've had tonight it's all been boring let's make it interesting with a murder or suicide if you won't wont kill me as if you know how close you push me it's hard to keep breathing once i start i just can't stop you can't kill a feeling but you can drown it just break the bottle and pour it in i've got a gun and i've lost control there sure been some times that i've been close to suicide before and i know i'm not quite sure what i'm thinking now just leave me be and clean the blood up off the floor and you know
you can't kill a feeling
but you can drown it
just break the bottle and pour it in
as if you know
once i start i just cant stop
you can't kill a feeling
but you can drown it

its all the same break my heart pulse front and turn away
play your games you're killing me for everyday

as if you know

but you can drown it
just break the bottle and pour it in
as if you know
once i start i just can't stop
you can't kill a feeling
