Lyrics written by Andre Gallardo.
There's a place I want to see
Away from everything I couldn't be Thought I'd never find it but here I am
And inside the looking glass
She whispered to me things I've feared
Till they all seemed faded
Till I couldn't feel
Fall behind
I've lost my mind and now I'm far behind
Will I make it home
Fall behind
I've lost my time and now I'm far behind
From me
Follow in without a clue
Find some time some tea for two
Through the smoke I see it clear
But the party's over
I can't fight, I can't win

What the hell am I turning in
I don't know what who I am
And I don't give a damn
Fall behind
I've lost my mind and now I'm far behind
Will I make it home
Fall behind
I've lost my time and now I'm far behind
From me
Mr. Rabbit and his ticking pocket
Watch the crescent cheshire smile
Gave my heart away for a brand new game
Wonder how long since I've died...
Fall behind
I've lost my mind and now I'm far behind
Will I make it home
Fall behind
I've lost my time and now I'm far behind
From me
