I know you never thought I'd go
And leave you here alone
December air is gone forever
And I'm missin' us together

So now the road will catch my tears
And hold me in it's arms
It teaches me to be without you
It teaches me to miss you

There's been nothing worse than this drive
And see your eyes as the stars in the sky
So many words being left unsaid
This pen is startin' to fall behind

Can you see me through your window?
Have you bothered to clean the glass?
Distance never seem to hurt you
It always seemed to follow you

And all of the things that I wanted to say
It's all been set aside until I see you again
These pages can't hold my thoughts or your hand
And the tears that I cried will be falling again

This car seems to be going the opposite way
Of the highway I take to see you again
These cities don't welcome a broken down man
Nothing beats the comfort of your bed

Speed up time
These days go by so slowly
The road home is never ending

Slow down time
I'll savor the comfort of her arms
And the loves she shows with her eyes
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
