she wears it on the street that pretty little dress she wears it out but there's holes and stains and she wants to feel the burn but to scared to take a turn she finds not being taught is the only way to learn faster here we go

did it mean that i would have to run

did it take that much or not enough and now a new confusion sets in can i do this on my own

a perfect mess so unprotected

no moleste

i'm tired i'm tired of nothing looks like one who couldn't face the truth and honest soul who wants to lose control but who must restrain it sometimes its just a game and foolish like the rest the stories getting loud turn it down so i can't hear it
