And I could've rolled right off the sidewalk
If I couldn't find a place to go
Bright eyes
Big skies
Locked up it's no surprise that
I've spent another day in this beat up town
Funny how this crazy life it takes you
Everywhere you do not care to go
Believe
Achieve
You could be on to something

If you're only willing to let go
And if there's some bright idea
It's surely not mine
Another batch of questions all I find
Walking
Downtown
Move forward looking down
Thinking that the sky will fall on me
Maybe the sky will fall
