You look into my eyes, then you realize
Thru all the tears you've cried,
I've been right by your side.
But you don't understand that all I did was plan
And try to be your man.
That's something you can't deny.

I feel I'm falling down,
'cause you mean much more than a friend
And you took my heart again.

Now you have the time,
Just open up your mind and maybe then you'll try
To see the other side.
But you don't wanna be what you mean to me,
Refusing to believe that I'm the one you love.

I feel I'm falling down,
'cause you mean much more than a friend
And you took my heart again.
