I notice you're leaving
Tomorrow believing
And I know you'll discover
A lot of things without each other
I can't go
I'm going to stay
And live my life
Do things my way
But you're leaving
Believing and dreaming
And I'll be waiting for you
You're coming and going
You don't know what you want
And I know it takes forever
For two hearts to come together
You can't show
What you want to say
So live your life
And to things your way
So you're leaving believing you're dreaming
And I'll be waiting for you
And you'll waiting for me
Because everything I do
Is so easy to see
And after all this time
You can't make up your mind
Right there for you
And you'll be there for me
You're leaving believing
You're dreaming
And I'll be waiting for you
