"Cigarettes"

Cigarettes, cigarettes and cheap champagne
Watching movies in the dark but really listening to the rain
Jealousy, two years of tainted history Swallowed whole can dig a hole deeper then any cemetery

Can't wear you out cause your solid gold

Cigarettes, old regrets they can't compete With where we are now counting stars and all the cars out on the street
Don't understand, can't understand just what you see
A pioneer, a vagabond or just a case of charity

If i could just shut up, we could get down
Pretend we're the only ones alive in this town
If i could only laugh, if i could only breathe
If i could only change one thing

Cigarettes, cigarettes and cheap champagne
Watching movies in the dark but really listening to the
rain
Don't understand, can't understand why you believe That piles of bills won't break your will until the day you set me free

If i could only change one thing
I wouldn't have held you from holding me

You belong to me
You're safe right here, you're safe right here
You belong to me
Save your breath, we're the only guarantee

If i could just shut up, we could get down
Pretend we're the only ones alive in this town
If i could make you laugh, if i could make you scream
I shouldn't have held you from holding me

If i could only change one thing
