I think I've had enough,
I think I'm thinking much too much.
I think I've had enough,
I think I'm thinking much too much.

I think the time is up,
For conversation
I think the time is up,
For this relationship,
I'm not hip to this game anymore.
Then what are we still fighting for.

I love you from the top,
And I hate you from the bottom of my heart.
I never wanna stop, no.
But you say it anytime I wanna start.
You raise me up, you force me down,
I love you from the top,
And I hate you from the bottom of my heart.

I think I've had enough,
I think I'm thinking much too much.
I know that times are tough,
I think I'm drinking much too much again

I think the time is up,
For conversation.
I think the time is up,
For this relationship,
I'm not hip to this game anymore.
Then what are we still fighting for.

I love you from the top,
And I hate you from the bottom of my heart.
I never wanna stop, no.
But you say it anytime I wanna start.
You raise me up, you force me down,
I love you from the top,
And I hate you from the bottom
Again, you bury my words down again (x3)
Again, you bury my words down

You raise me up, you force me down (x3)
You raise me up, RISE UP
And force me down

I love you from the top,
And I hate you from the bottom of my heart.
I never wanna stop, no.
But you say it anytime I wanna start.
You raise me up, and force me down,
I love you from the top,
And I hate you from the bottom of my heart

Spoken: "You guys got a lot of laws right?
Well let me tell you something: I only got one law. A kid who tells on another kid is a dead kid."
