How'd I know
How'd I know you would be here
I picked up the tab, lets get out
Hold you tight, like the dirty secret
We never could keep Let's get out

Past your house, past the job that you can't stand
We've locked all the doors, lets get out
Your father called, your only reason to stay here
He only wanted some cash, let's get out

I fixed up the motor today, and we can leave any time
we want to
Your tattoos are faded away
Now, you can be anything you want to
Now, you can be anything you want, tonight

I'll drive tonight, even the sleepless sleep sometimes
Close your eyes tight, I'll drive tonight
We can leave any time we want to
We can leave any time we want to

Monday nights, couldn't move at the Foundry
Where we all used to meet to get out
There's no one left
Now, the tips they don't cut it
Should've left when the lights they burnt out

I fixed up the motor today, and we can leave any time
we want to
Your tattoos are faded away
Now, you can be anything you want to

I'll drive tonight, even the sleepless sleep sometimes
Close your eyes tight, I'll drive tonight
We can leave any time we want to
We can leave any time we want to

We watched buildings fade as stars came in to view We're just half a tank away from somewhere new

I wanna be anywhere but back, out where the neon lights burn black
I want you to wake up far away from all that

I fixed up the motor today, and we can leave any time
we want to
Your tattoos are faded away
Now, you can be anything you want to
Now, you can be anything you want, to
Now, you can be anything, anything you want tonight

I'll drive tonight, even the sleepless sleep sometimes
Close your eyes tight, I'll drive tonight
We can leave any time we want tonight

I'll drive tonight, even the sleepless sleep sometimes
Close your eyes tight, I'll drive tonight
We can leave any time we want to
We can leave any time we want to
We can leave any time, any time we want tonight
