Reggae in the bathroom, reggae in the bedroom
Reggae everywhere, reggae in jail, reggae in church
Everybody likes it they tried to kill it many years ago
Killing the prophets of reggae

Destroying the prophets of reggae
But somebody said to all the bald heads
Respect the Rastaman 'cos he's the only one
Only one left in Jah creation

Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
'Cos reggae's strong

You can change the style of playing reggae
You can change the rhythm of playing reggae
But never ever change the message every time I play it a Babylon
A wish me fe dead, a wish me fe dead

They tried to destroy it many years ago
Killing the prophets of reggae
Killing the prophets of reggae
But somebody said to all the bald heads

Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
'Cos reggae's strong

Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
'Cos reggae's strong

Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
Nobody can stop reggae
'Cos reggae's strong
