I've been risking my life all these years
Protecting you from all the wrongs you did man
I give all this because of your promises
You promised me that you will die when I die
You promised that when trouble comes my way you gonna be there But when trouble comes and knock on my door, you were there to be find,
When trouble comes and knock on my door, you were there to be find,
The world is telling lie, yesterday becomes tomorrow, when lie is said to be truth and truth is said to be lie, ye ye ye
No truth in this world (2x)
Like a preacher in church'
Who preaches until tears run down his face, when the sun goes down he's a holigan, when the sun goes down he's a witch,
and he's doing all tis in the creator's name' do you think this is the way God wants it to be?
The world is telling lie, when today becomes tomorrow'
when lie becomes truth, the future becomes the past, oooooooooooooh

No truth in this world

Chorus till fade
