Days go by, and I still remain the same
I sit here and cry, while I eagerly keep wondering

Why you had to go? why you'd hurt me so?

I can't sit here and wait cuz I know
You won't be coming home

I know I've done you wrong, but I've told you that I'm sorry
And it's been so long, I don't think I can go on

Am I not good enough? I know it's all so tough
I can't ask for one last chance cuz I know
That you won't be coming home

I guess this is the end, there's no use of crying
And I'll try to forget all the things that ever happened
But still I love you so, I wish I could let go

So I'll wave you goodbye and my only friend
Is this lullaby
