Go ahead, do whatever you want
This is all about you
It's okay, don't bother feeling guilty
Like the rest of us do

The truth is something you've heard about
But you don't know what it means
It's only a word after all
Just one more thing you don't take seriously

You were bored so you played with your wifes best friend
Wrecked families along the way
And you stepped on the people who stood beside you
Cause they looked at you the wrong way

And now you're so lonely
And there's no one there for you
And the bodies in your wake, it was their fault
They didn't try to understand you

Chorus
No more excuses baby
No more excuses baby
No more excuses

Your life is one long hit and run
You don't bother to look back
There's always someone running behind you
Spreading dirt to cover your tracks

When I was all alone and I needed you
What I price I paid back then
For a little warmth you wanted everything I had I'll never reach for you again

Chorus

If you could only hear what people say
As soon as you turn your head away
Do you really think that you won't pay

When you're all alone one day
You have to live with yourself everyday
But I can walk away

Chorus
