She feigns a sigh
The pastor's daughter

She caught his eye
The non-believer

And they all fall domino, domino
Slow motion domino, domino
Too late to rewrite the book
Watch them all fall, domino, domino

He waits for her
They meet in secret

Let down her hair
Undress the evening

And they all fall domino, domino
Slow motion domino, domino
Too late to rewrite the book
Watch them all fall, domino, domino

What is this
A sign of life
Under the belly of a once young girl

Call the pastor
Call his wife
When they hear it they tell you she's a daughter no more
Ooooooh

And they all fall domino, domino
Slow motion domino, domino
Too late to rewrite the book
Watch them all fall, domino, domino
