Iâ€™m ready, ready to run free
Iâ€™d like to know what lies beyond the blue sea
You live once, so drink the honey
I learn my lessons from the birds and the bees

I want the sky to open wide
Illuminate this fire inside
I want the sky

These buildings, high above me
Are so much taller than the pictures Iâ€™ve seen
I donâ€™t got a lot of money
But I got you and baby thatâ€™s all I need
I want the sky to open wide
Illuminate this fire inside
I want the sky

Iâ€™m ready, ready to run free
Iâ€™d like to know what lies beyond the blue sea
You live once, so drink the honey
I learn my lessons from the birds and the bees

I want the sky to open wide
Illuminate this fire inside
I want the sky
