If he told me in a letter
I could read between the lines and if he whispered softly on the phone I could hear it in his voice
But he won't tell me nothing that i allready know and i really need that something boy i wish that he would show

Chorus:

If he loves me loves me not
I got to know
beacuse I need my baby
loves me loves me not, I got to know beacuse i need my baby tonight

we go round andd round in circles only wasting precious time If he only he would tell the truth instead of tearin' up my heart But he wont't tell me nothing and boy I wish that he would show

Chorus:

If he loves me loves me not
I got to know
beacuse I need my baby
beacuse i need my baby tonight

Is this just a big illusion that makes me fall into confusion
I got to know

Chorus:

If he loves me loves me not
I got to know
beacuse I need my baby
beacuse i need my baby tonight
