Yeah
Ok
Ok
Luda
Hey

I'm back on it like I just signed my record deal
Yeah the best is here
The Bentley Coup paint is dripping wet
It got sex appeal

Never should have hated you
Never should have doubted him
With a slot in the President's iPod
Obama shouted him

Said I handled my biz
And I'm one of his favourite rappers
Would give Luda a special pardon
If I'm ever in the slammer

Better yet put me in office
Make me a vice president
Hilary hated on you
So that bitch is irrelevant

Now Jesse talking slick
And apologising FOR WHAT?
If you said it then you meant it
How you wanted had a gut

And all you other politicians
Tryna hate on my man
Watch us win majority vote
And every state of my man

You can't stop what's 'bout to happen
We bout to make history
The first Black president
It's destined and it's meant to be

The threats ain't fazing us
The nuisance or the jokes
Get off your ass black people
It's time to get out and vote

Paint the white house black
And I'm sure that's got 'em terrified
McCain don't belong in any chair
Unless he's paralysed

Yeah I said it
'Cos Bush is mentally handicapped
Ball up all of his speeches
And just throw 'em like candy wraps

'Cos what you talkin'
I hear nothing even relevant
And you the worst
Of all 43 presidents

Get out and vote
Or the end'll be near
And the world is ready for change
'Cos Obama is here yeah

'Cos Obama is here
The world is ready for change
'Cos Obama is here say

Hey
