Hey yeah, do you remember him
Down at the fishin' hole again
Trying to catch a little life on his line
Don't seem so long ago, but for men like him
I hear time goes by so slow
Now he's flying solo, once again
And he's bringing with him

99 bottles of Vicodin
99 bottles of Vicodin
99 bottles of Vicodin
What did you do?

I didn't mean to pray so infrequently Couldn't even say that I spoke to him recently Our father, where art thou?
Down by the river, down by the river

And I stood at the corner of Hollywood and Vine
And I knew that he stood there so many years ago

p a s s i n g

time.
Looking for answers
he never would find

Church bells were ringing someone was singing:

99 bottles of Vicodin
99 bottles of Vicodin
99 bottles of Vicodin
What did you do?

Hey yeah, do you remember him
Down at the fishin' hole again

Trying to catch a little life on his line
one
more
time

Don't seem so long ago
But for men like him
I hear that time goes by s o s l o w
Now he's flying so low
Once again
And he's bringing with him

99 bottles of Vicodin
99 bottles of Vicodin
99 bottles of Vicodin

Daddy, what did you do?
