Blue days
Smells like... Picasso
Walking round through the same maze
I'm not sure how it got so
Dark in here
Where went the moonlight?
Sad and dreary
Nothing comes out right
And my old piano
Is clearly
Rotten/rotting down to the wire!
Trapdoor

And the cellar is gloomy
Under the floor
But who knew that hell was so
Roomy?

Still it's...
Dark in here
Where went the moonlight?
Sad and dreary
Nothing comes out right
And my old piano
Is clearly
Rotten/rotting down to the wire!
[piano interlude]

What else can I do? I feel blue
My eyes adjust to the darkness
And now I see

We're all on a stage
But no one will say what this place is

And my old piano
Is clearly
Rotten/rotting down to the wire!
And everyone knows it
But nobody's talking
I'm here for my close up
Shoot something shocking
And my piano is rotting
It's Rotten/rotting
