I've never felt as sad as I do now
I've never felt as cold as I do now
How can I go on knowing that you're gone?
Baby can you please release me
Save me from this gothic sunshine

My love I can't disguise it
I know I compromised it
But I gotta keep it real
And this is how I feel
My love my heart is broken
All the love-yous left unspoken
I'd rip myself apart
If you could see my heart
Gothic sunshine
Gothic sunshine
Gothic sunshine
I've never felt as scared as I do now
I've never felt as lost as I do now
How can I go on knowing that you're gone?
Baby can you please release me
Save me from this gothic sunshine

My love I can't disguise it
I know I compromised it
But I gotta keep it real
And this is how I feel
My love my heart is broken
All the love-yous left unspoken
I'd rip myself apart
If you could see my heart
Gothic sunshine
Gothic sunshine
Gothic sunshine
