Is it something in your eyes, something in your smile
That makes me want to run and hide?
I can always tell the time when you are looking
You think that you can see inside
You think you know this thing I am
You need correction from me
No one's perfect, it's a scam
Upon inspection you'll see

I'm a defect too
This is not the movies baby
I'm an awful lot like you
I'm a defect, I'm a defect too

You light matches one by one, because it's fun
To watch the cardboard burning

Misunderstood by everyone, you think they're dumb
But maybe they're still learning
So stand up tall and stand up proud
Tell the world, RESPECT ME!
Reach into the sky and scream out loud
Everybody say it with me!

I'm a defect too
This is not the movies baby
I'm an awful lot like you
I'm a defect, I'm a defect too

Defected, discarded, disregarded

I'm a defect too
This is not the movies baby
I'm an awful lot like you
I'm a defect, I'm a defect too
