

Christine Anderson

"Viva L'amour"

Visit "Viva L'amour" on MotoLyrics.com

There's a clock on the wall and it's measuring down
The time you have left til you're dust on the ground
The people you love with the time that you've got Determine if you are rememebered or not

V i v a l ' a m o u r
V i v a l ' a m o u r

Stiff-collared businessmen feeling worn out
Shiftmen and driftmen they've forgotten about
Churchmen and craftsmen and madmen and whores
Are slaving their lives away. What about yours?
Traveling salesmen, homeless and kings
Dishearted lovers with Danieli rings
With all you don't have & with all that you're not Go back to love's daydreams, they're all that you've got

V i v a l ' a m o u r
V i v a l ' a m o u r

So for all you hard workers from LA to Paris
Open your eyes, tell me what do you see?
Remember September, Septembers before
The wheel keeps on turning, so children
Viva l'amour!

Visit Christine Anderson page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.