Have you said enough?
Enough to hurt someone? make them feel alone?
Hollering about heritage, wasting all the t.v. time?
Because of something that someone said before i was alive
To add insult to the ignorance, you think you're always right
How can you sleep at night when your running people's lives
Take a look at them, can you tell what's in their heart?

(chorus)

It's 1999 no '59
Put your trust in ignorance - so blind
It doesn't matter what color, class or creed you are
I think i've said enough
