Many times I've walked alone
And all the while I think I've always known
That emptiness will not subside
Through broken promises
Damn cold lies

Chorus

So I'll cry just a little more
And I'll run wherever my feet may take me
Satan's blocking heaven's door
And I can't get in
'Cause I've already been, there
Oh father, father can't you hear?
I tried to tell you through my cold angry tears
So don't you look at me that way
Don't pretend I never wanted you to stay

Repeat Chorus

Broken promises are real
The numbing pain we all refuse to feel

Repeat Chorus

Through my unforgivable sins
Ooh
