"Friend Called Secret"

There's a friend who never leaves
It's a friend who's always near
It's a guarded line, it's born to hide
It's a fire burning within

There's a friend who's made of fear
It's a friend who's always here
He's a waking lion, he'll break you down
Just waking up inside

Everyone has a secret
Everyone hides their pain
Guess it's part of our weakness
A friend called secret

The way we live, we barely change
Afraid to say, acting strange
It's just one desire, just one lie
We hope it'll fade enough in time

Everyone has a secret
Everyone hides their pain
A friend called secret
