Little snowbird,
You have frozen my heart
While your ice has torn me in every part
One little spark and your little, little flame
You opened up my feelings
And burnt inside my brain

I'm completely lazy,
I am also very free
My fortune is fire,
But I'm into you with the sea
Cliché has new meaning,
I will rhyme it with the moon
The puppet of love
Just wants to dangle to swoon

Little snowbird,
Take me to your nest
Little snowbird,
I see you lyin' upon your breast
Little snowbird,
I coun't myself as blessed
Little snowbird,
Yesterday's no bird
