Blue lights flashing in my rear view
The sheriff said boy i should have known it was you
You got 14 people in the back of this truck
I warned you twice and now im writing you up
I said officer what have I've done
He smiled and said boy your having too much fun

Chorus:

Too much fun whats that mean
It's like too much money, theres no such thing
Its like a girl too pretty, with too much class
Being too lucky, a car too fast
No matter what they say ive done, well i aint never had too much fun

There was a fight Friday night at the stumble in Me and old Harley just had to join in Next thing you know we were both seeing stars
They threw us out, floored down the bar
I said the long branch is open, the nights still young and we aint never had too much fun

Chorus:

Too much fun whats that mean
It's like too much money, theres no such thing
Its like a girl too pretty, with too much class
Being too lucky, a car too fast
No matter what they say ive done, well i aint never had
too much fun

Im a holy terror, a tornado wind me up turn me loose and let me go

Chorus:

Too much fun whats that mean
It's like too much money, theres no such thing
Its like a girl too pretty, with too much class
Being too lucky, a car too fast
No matter what they say ive done, well i aint never had
too much fun

No matter what they say ive done, well i aint never had

too much fun
Give me the reins and let me run cus i aint never had too much fun
