

Luke Bryan

"Dirt Road Diary"

Visit "Dirt Road Diary" on MotoLyrics.com

(1st verse)

Me and Dad would ride around all day shooting doves off
The line in a Chevrolet.
Old lab would jump out the back and fetch 'em up
Wed drive for miles and miles and never once hit black Top or change the dial
One little country station was all there was.
Checking gates, and fixing fence rows, that's how my Story goes

(Pre-chorus)

If you want to know the real me, just turn the page in My dirt road diary, it's right there for you to see,
Every kiss, every beer, every cotton field memory.

(Chorus)

Tan legs and some Dixieland delight, riding 'round, Windows down on a summer night, I was there, that was
Me, it's right here in my dirt road diary

(2nd verse)

I remember when I turned 16, I got a license and some Gasoline
Ain't a curve or a straight-away, we didn't fly down,
If it wasn't the boys, it was me and here, by a fire in

A field or down by the river,
Every inch of that county was sacred ground.
I wish I knew where that ol' truck was, if it could Speak it would tell on us.

(Pre-chorus)

If you want to know the real me, just turn the page in My dirt road diary it's right there for you to see every

Beer every kiss every cotton field memory.

(Chorus)

Tan legs and some Dixieland delight, riding 'round, Windows down on a summer night, I was there, that was
Me, it's right here in my dirt road diary

(Bridge)

It aint a book underneath my bed, just a dusty memory
Lane, in my head, yeah

(Chorus)

Tan legs and some Dixieland delight, riding 'round, Windows down on a summer night, I was there, that was
Me, it's right here in my dirt road diary, just ride Around this little town and you'll see, how I wrote my Dirt road diary.

Visit Luke Bryan page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.