You make me want to...
Hold ya like a hammock on a summer day,
Tell ya how ima take your cares away.

You make me want to

You make me want to...
Roll down the river and around the bend
Love you like a story with a happy endin'

You make me want to

You can blame it on my southern boy ways
Why I'm always running away
I don't know if I can ever change
But you make me want too

You make me want to.

You make me want to
Hang up the phone
Ride across town
Walk through your door and lay it down.
Kiss ya till you feel the truth

Yeah you make me want to.

You can blame it on my southern boy way
Why I'm always running away
I don't know if I can ever change
But you make me want to.
Yeah you make me want to

Woo!

Well I never met a girl like you
That's got me thinkin like I do
To hang up my hat and kick up my boots
But you make me want to
You make me want to

You make me want to

Baby you make me want to

Haha
