Hold still, while I break your heart
Dig up the past
And bury what we lost
Some of us have crossed the line
And waited all our lives
For just one ride.

Gather round, while I make you mine
We haven't got a lot of time
To make things right the wrong way
Back to front and side to side
We must fight
Some of us have missed the boat
And waited all our lives
To make it home

Well we started out with nothing
And we ended up with the world
I grew up to be the president
And you said you'd found the Lord
In ourselves
Some of us have lost our way
And waited all our lives
To make it pay

Turn back, but don't turn to stone
Your heart is aching to the bone
But there is more where love came from
It's in between the lines of every song
Some of us have given up
And waited all our lives
To have enough
