"Be My God"

Pretend to control me
To pull my strings
To be my God
To be my God

Pretend to love and hate
To take care of me
To be my faith
Be mine

I always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're gone

Pretend to control me
To pull my strings
To be my faith
Be mine

I always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're gone

I always needed You to be inside me
I guess You'll never, never be my God

I always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're gone

I always needed You to be inside me
I guess You'll never, never be my God
Never be my God

I always wanted You to be my God
I trusted You, but now You're gone

I always needed You to be inside me
I guess You'll never, never be my God
